

MCA21 Programme Launch by Hon'ble Prime Minister of India

New Delhi, Saturday March 18, 2006

The Hon'ble Prime Minister of India Dr. Manmohan Singh launched MCA21 programme at an impressive function held at Vigyan Bhavan, New Delhi.

The pioneering e-Governance initiative of Government of India as the first mission mode project under the National e-Governance Action Plan would bring about service transformation and increased transparency in the operations of the Ministry of Company Affairs.

The Secretary Ministry of Company Affairs, Shrimati Komal Anand gave the welcome address and made a presentation on MCA21 programme where the aspirations of stakeholder, convenience and better compliance of statute were explained as highlights of MCA 21 programme.

Shri S Ramadorai, CEO and MD of TCS, conveyed that TCS and the team were indeed proud to be partnering with the Government of India in this PATH BREAKING initiative and also confirmed that through this programme India is demonstrating its ability to undertake large IT programmes which have a HOLISTIC and all encompassing approach.

The Minister of Company Affairs, Shri Prem Chand Gupta highlighted the benefits of this programme would bring to the corporate community and how it would assist in their ability to become globally competitive in this fast changing business environment.

The Hon'ble Prime Minister of India, Dr. Manmohan Singh while commending the effort of this benchmarking example of PPP (Public Private Partnership) that was the fulcrum of MCA21 programme, also charted out his Government's endeavour and focus on bringing about greater efficiency and transparency through the deployment of 26 mission mode projects under the National e-Governance Action Plan.

The Secretary, Ministry of Information and Technology, Shri Brijesh Kumar while offering the vote of thanks acknowledged the contribution made by many institutions and individuals without whose contribution this programme would not have come to where it is today.

The programme was attended by Central Government Ministers, The Cabinet Secretary, Secretaries to Government of India, Senior Corporate and Industry Executives and large contingent from the media.

With this launch today all the companies who are affiliated to New Delhi office of Registrar of the Companies, besides Coimbatore, Ernakulam and Pondicherry RoCs, would be able to drive benefit of MCA 21 programme – by logging onto 'www.mca.gov.in'.

The MCA21 Facilitation Center set-up at New Delhi was also inaugurated by the Hon'ble Minister of Company Affairs today after the launch of the programme at Vigyan Bhavan.

